

1) What is Git?

Git is a version control system used to track changes in code.

2) What is Github?

Github is an online platform that stores Git repositories.

3) Diff Git & Github

Git
Version control tool
Works on local computer

Github
Online hosting service
Works on the internet

4) What is staging area?

The staging area is a place where files are prepared before committing.

5) What is commit in Git?

A commit is saving changes in Git with a message

6) What is branch?

A branch is a separate version of project used to develop features

7) Difference btwn git pull and git clone

git clone
Downloads repository
first time

git pull Updates existing repository

8) What is git add - do?

git add - adds all modified files to the staging area

9) What is use of git status?

- Modified files
- Staged files

10) What is origin in Git?
Origin is the default name of the ~~nam~~ remote repository

11) What is CSS

CSS is a style language used to design web pages

12) Three types of CSS

i) Inline CSS

ii) Internal CSS

iii) External CSS

13) What is CSS selector?

A selector is used to target HTML elements for styling

14) Why is CSS called Cascading style sheets?

Because styles cascade when multiple styles apply to same element

15) What is specificity in CSS

Because styles cascade when multiple styles apply to the same element.

16) CSS box model

The box model describes layout structure of elements

- 1) Content
- 2) Padding
- 3) Border
- 4) Margin

17) Diff margin & padding

Margin	Padding
Space outside element	Space inside element
Seperate element	Adds space around content

18) What is Flexbox?

Flexbox is a layout system for arranging items in one direction.

19) What is CSS Grid?

Grid is a two-dimensional layout system.

20) What does 1fr mean in Grid?

1fr means 1 fraction of available space.

21) Values of position property:
static - default
relative - moves relative to itself

22) What is Z-index?

Z-index controls which element appears on top.

23) Pseudo-class	Pseudo element
Style element state	Style part of element

24) Transform vs Transition

Transform	Transition
change shape / position	Adds animation effect
example rotate, scale	example smooth change over time

25) What is media query?

media query is used to make websites responsive for different screen sizes